

Clemmer Heads for Conference

"Looking Back to See Ahead" will be the theme when the California Society, American Institute of Park Executives, holds its 11th annual conference at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel, Pasadena, Jan. 10, through Jan. 13, according to Casper Clemmer, Park Superintendent in the City of Torrance.

Reporting that he plans to attend the important conclave in Pasadena, Clemmer said that he will attend sessions focusing attention on the field of public parks.

Conference delegate Clemmer said that discussion subjects will range from the citizenry's interest in public parks to budgeting and management analysis.

Local Recruiters See Banner Year for City in '60

The three branches of the United States armed forces in Torrance are looking forward to a banner year insofar as recruits are concerned.

Although recruiting was off in December due to the holiday season a pickup is expected in January that should run through 1960.

MSgt. Ernest P. Hayes, Torrance marine recruiting officer reported the following enlistments for December:

Carl H. Probasco, 21, 1726 Armour Lane, Redondo Beach; Thomas E. Kelly, 17, 20105 Ingram Way, Torrance and Neil Edward Baggett, 17, 21517 Scammel St., Torrance. They will all go to San Diego for boot training.

SSgt. Donald E. Fleming local army recruiter reports the following recruits for December:

William Henry Bryd Jr., 3662 W. 105th St., Inglewood; Joseph Flores Jr., 621 Lagoon Ave., Wilmington; John William Cavanaugh, 25418 Cypress St., Lomita; John Edward Kenney, III, 2614 Pacific Coast Highway, Torrance and George Ray Wimer, 1424 Hickory Ave., Torrance.

SSgt. Fleming today announces that he reenlisted into the army to fill his own vacancy which is a new twist. Fleming now has 10 years of active service in this branch of the armed forces.

The army recruits will go to Fort Ord for basic training.

Navy recruiter Marlon Bradley announces the following boys have enlisted in this branch of the military service:

Ben Sayles, 18, 4614 191 St., Torrance; James Reeves, 17, 20309 W. 177 St., Torrance.

Jan. 1 became generally accepted as New Year's Day in the 1500's when the Gregorian calendar was introduced, according to World Book Encyclopedia. But the new year still begins on March 21 in Iran. And the Hindus have a different New Year's Day for each of their many religious groups.
